Dear <insert name>

As a valued customer of AJ Grant, we want you to be the first to know.

After 25 years in the building industry, AJ Grant remains one of the most trusted and reliable builders for insurance claims and disaster relief.

No matter how much we've grown, our motivation remains the same; to deliver a standard of excellence to our customers.

You've welcomed us into your homes, and during this time you've asked for us to go beyond the insurance claim and help you achieve your home goals.

You've spoken. We've heard.

And are proud to announce that AJ Grant has now launched HomeCare Repair Australia (HCRA), our private works brand.

With the same high standard and accredited service providers, we are now available to work on any job, no matter how big or small, from home repairs to renovations.

We'll take care of that. <insert tagline>
